

Ready for Season

Young concert-goers have a treat in store as the fifth season of Concerts for Youth, presented by the California Chamber Symphony Society, opens on Feb. 8 at the El Camino College auditorium. "Birds and Bees" is the theme of this first concert. Committee members, looking over music to be presented, are Mmes John Vander Zee at the piano, surrounded by Mmes. William C. Rossull, Eugene B. Turner and Robert Haag. (Press-Herald Photo)

Fifth Season To Open

Concert for Youth Slated Feb. 8

Young people of the South Bay are invited to learn about the birds and bees through music when Henry Temianka and the California Chamber Symphony present "A Grand Zoological and Horticultural Festival" for the fifth season here of Concerts for Youth.

Three one-hour programs will be given, beginning at 11 a.m. on Saturdays, Feb. 8, March 1 and March 22 at the new auditorium at El Camino College, 16007 S. Crenshaw Blvd.

The Saturday concerts are designed especially for the young concert-goer. They will feature guest performances by outstanding young artists, and audience participation commentaries by M. Temianka. "The Birds and the Bees" will be the theme of the first concert on Feb. 8, and violinist Franklin D'Antonio will be soloist.

Ronald Cooper, cello, and Gerald Robbins, piano, will be the soloists for the program on March 1. "Of Mammals, Fish and Other Living Things" will be the theme for selections presented then. The last of the series on March 22 will be based on "The Flowers and the Fruits of the Earth". Soloist will be Sidney Muldrow, French horn.

Sponsors of the South Bay series of Concerts for Youth are El Camino College and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Chamber Symphony Society of California. President of the Auxiliary is Mrs. Paul Pabst. Members working on the committee are Mmes. Wayland Augur, Thomas Carvey, Manley Danforth, Robert Dreizler, James Easton, and Robert Haag.

Others are Mmes. Pete Hoagland, John Schwindt, John Wilson, Douglas Maple, J. D. Theis, and John Van der Zee. These women represent the districts of the Peninsula, Torrance, Manhattan Beach, Lomita, Lawndale, Inglewood, Redondo Beach, and Gardena.

Bridge Party

Mrs. M. A. Bauman entertained her club at a bridge luncheon last Thursday at her home, 3916 Palos Verdes Dr., N. Palos Verdes Estates.

In the bridge games, following the luncheon, high score was held by Mrs. John Melville and second by Mrs. Delbert Thomsen.

Mrs. Bauman's guests were Mmes. William Boswell, Paul Loranger, John Melville, Dean Sears, Mel Millar and Delbert Thomsen, club members. Mrs. Henry Backlund was a guest.

Mrs. Boswell will be the club's next hostess.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

FRIDAY, JANUARY 24, 1969

B-1

Committee Presents

Angel Musicale

Fund raising the light hearted way comes naturally to the Angel Musicale Committee, which is busy arranging for its annual Musicale and Luncheon to be held March 17 at the Proud Bird restaurant in Westchester.

***

The "Angels" are a part of the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, which will present John Green, composer and pianist, as guest artist.

***

The annual event will be presented as a main fund raising project of the group, according to Mrs. James Foley, president, and will include an original musical lecture to be followed by the luncheon. Invitations for the event, known throughout the area for bringing outstanding musical programs to the community, will be issued in February.

***

The Peninsula Committee

was also instrumental in obtaining a piano for the community room of the Peninsula Public Library, 27659 Deep Valley Dr. Its use is planned for recitals, children's programs, as well as community-sponsored events.

***

Members of the "Angels" already at work on arrangements for their St. Patrick's Day musicale include Mmes Richard DeLuce, chairman; Donald Iverson, program; Ernest Helme and William Farwell, tickets and reservations.

***

Others are Mmes Harry C. Dorsey, donations; Lorrin C. Tarlton, Jr., decorations; Lee Cunningham and Forrest Faulconer, invitations; John Foster, William Campeau and Thomas Wachtell, publicity; Lawrence Willson, advisor; Herbert J. Jones, program of the day; Max Weber, hostess; and Tom Carvey, Palos Verdes Community Arts Exhibit.

For Philharmonic Orchestra

Looking forward to their St. Patrick's Day Musicale and Luncheon to be held at the Proud Bird, these Angels of the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra try out the piano they purchased for the main library in Palos Verdes. Since they will hear an organial music lecture prior to the program, Mrs. Donald Iverson, at the piano, plays from 400 year old missal sheets held by Mmes. Harry Dorsey and Ernst C. Helme, Jr. The missal sheets were handprinted in 1540. (Press-Herald Photo)

Tickets on Sale

Youth Concert Slated In San Pedro Feb. 8

Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra will feature the music of Handel, Debussy and Wagner at the annual "Symphony for Youth" concert in the San Pedro High School auditorium on Saturday, Feb. 8 at 10 a.m.

Michael Tilson Thomas, this year's winner of the Serge Koussevitsky prize for Young Conductors at Tanglewood's Berkshire Music Festival, will conduct the program for which tickets are now available.

The "Water Music Suite" by Handel, the first and second movements of Debussy's "La Mer" with soloist, and Wagner's overture to "The Flying Dutchman" will make up the program.

The Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic is coordinating the event as it has in the past, and Mrs. Thomas Wachtell, 35 Crest Rd. East, Rolling Hills, is chairman.

Tickets may be purchased by mail from Mrs. Wachtell. They are also on sale at Sam Martin's men's store in San Pedro, Curt Wagner's in Hollywood Riviera, and Mr. "B" for Music in the Peninsula Center.

Information concerning group sales for Scouts or other organizations may also be obtained by calling Mrs. Thomas Wachtell.

Third In Concert Series

South Bay Community Concert Association will present Leonard Rose, cellist, in its third concert of the season, Saturday evening at Mira Costa High school auditorium at 8.

The celebrated artist will perform on a rare Amati cello, dated 1612.

Admission to Saturday's concert is by membership card only.

Leonard Rose

Beasley-Bosse Vows Recited

Mrs. D. W. Bosse

Mr. and Mrs. Darryl Wayne Bosse are now at home on Lomita Blvd. in Lomita, following their recent marriage at the St. John Presbyterian Church in Long Beach. Mrs. Bosse is the former Miss Janet Katherine Beasley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurnes Beasley, 2817 Winlock Dr., Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bosse of La Mirada.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of peau de soie sprinkled with tiny pearls. The gown was fashioned with a cowl neckline and a slender line skirt which fell into a chapel train. Her bouffant shoulder veil cascaded from a double lace petal headpiece which was also enhanced with pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses, baby breath and orchids.

Attendants were Miss Margaret Beck, maid of honor; Mrs. Ronald Traub and Mrs. Dennis Johnson, bridesmaids. They wore sapphire blue velvet and carried blue and white chrysanthemums.

Douglas Asper performed the best man duties and ushers were William Beasley and Roger Collins.

The Rev. Ralph Edwards Michels officiated at the marriage ceremony which was followed by a reception at the church.

The honeymoon was spent in San Francisco.

The new Mrs. Bosse was graduated from South High school and is employed at Northrop Corp.

Her husband is a graduate of La Mirada High school and Cerritos Junior College. He is now attending California State College at Long Beach.

New Members Join In Hadassah "Talk-In"

New members of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah will tell the membership at large a "thing or two or three" in a panel-type Hadassah Talk-In.

The event will be held at the Western-Federal Bank Recreation Room on Hawthorne Blvd., at Carson Avenue, on Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1969, beginning at 12:30 p.m.

Participating in the Talk-In are Mmes. Max Chudnow, commentator; Maurice Commandy, Paul Goodley and Louis Marcus.

An invitation to attend is extended to the community, all members and friends.